

The James Wilson Young Middle School has a webmaster club that is led by Library Media Specialist Kelly Noeldechen and high school junior Ryan Yannelli, the student programming coach.

Newfield High School (Selden) students participated in the "Hour of Code" program, designed to spark students' interest in computer science by teaching them how to code computer programs while playing interactive games.

Gershow Recycling has announced that it is expanding its scholarship program to Riverhead High School. It provides a one-time, $1,000 scholarship to graduating seniors in school districts in which Gershow's facilities are located. For details, call 631-289-6188; or visit www.gershow.com.

Darlene Aiken, a professor at Suffolk Community College, Ammerman campus in Selden, released the second edition of her book, "How to be a Young Lady: Your Total Guide for Being the Best Possible You."

Students in Laurie Jerssen's ESBOCES Pharmacy Technician class

Photo courtesy of John Zahner/PMMG New York

Todd Arnett, a local artist, used his creativity on the grounds of Camp-Pa-Qua-Tuck in Center Moriches by creating a wooden sculpture near Kaler's Pond. The unnamed sculpture was carved out of an 11-foot-tall, 800-pound black cherry tree and made and placed on a 5,000-pound illuminated base.

are interning at Walgreen's in Medford where they are learning how to interpret prescriptions using a patient profile system, how to count medications and more.

Send community news three weeks in advance, to: "Community Announcement," c/o NMG's Star Editorial, 235 Pinelawn Road, Melville, NY 11747, ATT: Jessica Novins; fax to: 631-846-2614; or send an e-mail: jnovins@newsday.com. All events MUST include a contact phone number. 17188962H404