

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Claude Solnik covers healthcare, finance, and technology/energy for Long Island Business News.

He can be reached via email at claudesolnik@libn.com or at (631) 913-4244.

DIGITAL EDITION

The look and feel of print, on your screen.

Current edition

Subscribe now

Home / News / Finance / Sanders Thaler adds Lebenhart

ThinkStock Photo

Sanders Thaler adds Lebenhart

By: Claude Solnik | October 30, 2014 | 0

Jericho-based Sanders Thaler Viola & Katz is merging Plainview based Eliot H. Lebenhart CPA, a five-person practice, into its business.

The two firms recently signed documents to make the merger effective as of Nov. 1, growing Sanders Thaler to around 35. Lebenhart's firm, which specializes in wealth management for entertainment and sports clients, is moving into Sanders Thaler's Long Island office.

"We're starting to add niches in our firm," Managing Partner Scott Sanders said. "This niche works perfectly."

After working at firms specialized in providing tax services to the sports and entertainment industries, Lebenhart in 1983 launched firm focusing on sports, entertainment and fashion clients.

He is a member of the executive board of directors of the New York State Society of CPAs' Nassau Chapter and co-chairs its Small Firm Management of an Accounting Practice Committee and Practice Continuation Committee.

Sanders Thaler, which also has a Manhattan office, several months ago merged the business of a Northport-based firm into its operations.

Sanders said that the firm is in talks with another accounting firm that could merge with it later this year.

Free Wellness Program for Healthier Suffolk County Worksites!
www.rethinkyourdrinksuffolk.org

SUBSCRIBE
To RSS Feed

9,852
Followers

2,428
Fans

THE POLL

What do you expect gas prices to do for the rest of the year?

- Continue declining through the holidays.
- Stay where they are.
- Start rising before New Year's.
- Gas at $3.20 is a "bargain?" We must be brainwashed!

Vote

View Results

LIBN ON FLICKR

